United Way...Helping Right Here In Our Community!

The United Way of Lee County, Inc. gives each individual a chance to invest in the future of this community, to be a mobilizing force in the community, to change lives. Each day thousands of individuals, just like you, make use of services provided by one of the many United Way agencies. We hope that you will invest in your community again this year so these services can continue to make this community a wonderful place to live.

Education

#1 Helping Children and Youth Achieve Their Potential:

Reaching out to children and youth with programs that enrich emotional, intellectual and social development, and encourage brighter futures.

Strengthening Families and Communities:

#2 Helping Families Become Financially Stable and Independent:

Offering basic skills enhancement, and affordable quality childcare to increase self-sufficiency, parenting programs for young families and information and referral for the community at large.

Health

#3 Promoting Health and Independence:

Helping people with disabilities achieve their potential and helping seniors maintain independent and healthy lives. Also provides health-related services for many local residents.

Crisis

#4 Assisting in Time of Critical Need or Crisis:

Providing a safety net to help people stay on their feet, whether victims of disaster or abuse, lay-off, or other personal tragedies.

Our Guarantee: United Way of Lee County, Inc. makes sure that the money you give is wisely spent. Your donation stays here, to support programs where you live and work. Specially trained volunteers monitor agencies to be sure that your money goes where charitable dollars work best. Because fund-raising costs are kept low, most of your gift (91%) goes to programs which help people in our community. We guarantee that your gift will be used effectively to strengthen our community.
