

WHAT CAN $5 DO FOR LEE COUNTY?

- Help Project Uplift provide a healthy snack for mentees after school.
- Help Lee County CASA provide an activity that their volunteers can complete with a child on their first visit to build rapport.
- Help the Tallapoosa County Sheriffs Girls Ranch purchase new socks for a child who came into care with only the clothes they walked in with.
- Help the American Red Cross gift one blanket for cot padding or coverage while sleeping.

WHAT CAN $12 DO FOR LEE COUNTY?

- Helps Community Market provide 100 pounds of food from the Food Bank to distribute to people in need.
- Helps the American Red Cross provide one comfort kit and one snack for three individuals.
- Helps the Food Bank distribute the equivalent of 84 meals.
- Helps the Achievement Center assist with prescription of antibiotics for an economically disadvantaged individual.

WHAT CAN $12 DO FOR LEE COUNTY?

- Help Joyland Child Development Center purchase additional underclothes for children in need.
- Help Project Uplift provide nearly 1.5 hours of visitation by an orientation counselor/roamer with a child on the Project Uplift waiting list.
- Help Special Deliveries provide a month's worth of baby wash, wipes, and lotion for a newborn.

WHAT CAN $20 DO FOR LEE COUNTY?

- Helps Domestic Violence Intervention Center provide a meal for a mom and child who had to flee a domestic violence situation without having a meal.
- Helps Alabama Head Injury Foundation provide one hour of respite care to a caregiver of a traumatic brain injury survivor

WHAT CAN $24 DO FOR LEE COUNTY?

- Helps Achievement Center purchase a tub/transfer bench for an elderly individual or someone with a disability.
- Helps Joyland Child Development Center cover one box of diapers for infant and toddler moms.
- Helps Project Uplift provide nearly 2.5 hours of visitation by an orientation counselor/roamer with a child on the waiting list.

WHAT CAN $24 DO FOR LEE COUNTY?

- Helps the American Red Cross deliver one Reconnection Workshop to a service member, veteran, or family member that covers reintegration back into family and community.
- Helps the Tallapoosa County Sheriffs Girls Ranch transport three children to therapy sessions for a week.

